

Good Governance for not-for-profit organisations

Whether you're a new board member or you've been doing it for a while, there is always more to learn about your legal responsibilities. What does it mean to be a board member? What are your key responsibilities? What are you liable for and where can you turn if things go wrong? If you want to know more about governing a not-for-profit organisation, this in-depth 3-hour training session is for you.

You'll learn about:

- Legal roles of committee/board members as decision makers
- Differences between governance and management
- Legal structure and status of your organisation
- Importance of rules and legal purpose or objects
- Four key legal duties of committee/board members
- Potential liabilities, protecting yourself and your organisation
- Other relevant laws and additional resources

This 3 hour workshop will be facilitated by a Justice Connect- Not for profit lawyer who specialise in charity and not-for-profit

Date: Thursday 3 October 2024, 5pm – 8.30pm

Venue: Activity Room One, Bendigo Library
